

The Hamilton Ross Group Privacy Policy

The Hamilton Ross Group, consisting of Hamilton Brothers, Reekie Ltd and Ross of Lanark, is committed to protecting your personal information and contacting you responsibly about products of genuine interest. Therefore, we want you to be confident about how your personal information will be looked after and used.

This privacy notice applies to all customers and suppliers of The Hamilton Ross Group companies. The purpose of this privacy notice is to let you know how the companies within our Group promise to look after your personal information. This includes what you tell us about yourself, what we learn by having you as a customer, any data stored for legal reasons and the choices you make about what marketing materials we send you. This notice also explains your rights and how the law protects you.

Who are we?

The Hamilton Ross Group represents three Scottish agricultural, groundcare and construction machinery dealerships across six sites including Hamilton Bros (Engineering) Ltd (www.hamiltonbros.co.uk), Reekie Ltd (www.reekie.co.uk) and Daniel Ross (Engineers) Ltd trading as Ross of Lanark (www.rossoflanark.co.uk). The Hamilton Ross Group also represents Hamilton Bros online shop, Hamilton Bros Direct (www.hamiltonbrodirect.co.uk).

The Hamilton Ross Group needs to gather and use certain information about individuals. This includes information about customers, suppliers, business contacts, employees and other individuals we have a relationship with or may need to contact.

If you have any questions or want more details about how we use your personal information, you can ask us by emailing gdpr@hamiltonrossgroup.co.uk. The responsible person for Data Protection at The Hamilton Ross Group is Hamilton Bros' Managing Director, Eric Gardiner.

How does the law protect you?

Data Protection law states that we are only allowed to use personal information if we have a legitimate reason to do so, this includes sharing the data outside The Hamilton Ross Group.

Under the law we must have one or more of these reasons:

- To fulfil a contract we have with you.
- When it is our legal duty.
- When it is in our legitimate interest.
- When you consent to it.

A legitimate interest is when we have a commercial reason to use your information. However, this interest must not unfairly conflict with what is best for you. If we rely on our legitimate interest, then we will tell you what that is.

Groups of Information

The personal information we collect and how we use it will depend on your relationship with us. Our information falls into four categories: legal, transactional, contractual and marketing.

We process information provided by the customer to give consent to receive marketing communications from Vauxhall Motors Limited. 3. We process information provided by the customer to conduct market research to better improve our services.

How we handle your information

Legal Information:

What do we use your data for?	Your data is used to legalise the sale of certain products.
How is your data collected?	Your data is collected via a scan of the required documents required (such as ID or certificated).
Where is your data stored?	Your data is stored against your customer account on our IBCOS Gold System at Hamilton Bros and Reekie Ltd and our Autoview system at Ross of Lanark and our Microsoft One Drive.
Why is your data collected?	Your data is collected to ensure we abide by the law when selling you certain products or services.
How will your data be used?	Your data will be stored as evidence that you are eligible to purchase certain restricted products and that both parties have abided by the law when processing the sale. This data may be provided to the relevant enforcing authority if the sale is queried or investigated.
Who will we share your data with?	Sometimes we are required to share information on sales of Rat Poison and Phostoxin Mole Pellets to the enforcing authority, Quality Meat Scotland. Our Registration Plates are produced by Dingbro and, therefore, data is shared with them. In addition, the data used to create a Registration Plate may need to be shared with, DVLA, Police or Trading Standards if requested. MOT Certificates and new machinery registration information is also shared with the DVLA.
How long will your data be stored for?	We must keep Farm Assurance Certificates for Rat Poison and NPTC Level 2 Award in the Safe Use of Toxins Certificate for the purchase of Phostoxin Mole Pellets for five years by law. Records of registration plate sales are kept for a minimum of 3 years in accordance with current legislation.

Transactional Information:

What do we use your data for?	Your data is used to open an account with one of our businesses and for any future transactions or conversations regarding Sales and Service enquiries. Transactional data is also used to register machines with manufacturers to activate the warranty period and to send you customer satisfaction surveys.
How is your data collected?	Data is collected via a written form for an account to be opened. Data is also collected when booking a service, MOT, registering a warranty or making an enquiry- this includes enquires made via the Quick Enquiry form on one of our websites. A signature is required for manufacturer warranty registration forms.
Where is your data stored?	Data is stored on our IBCOS Gold System and Autoview System, Microsoft Office 365 email system and on the company One Drive. Data used for manufacturer warranty registration will also be stored on the relevant manufacturer's system. Data used to book the service of a Vauxhall vehicle with Ross of Lanark is also stored on Vauxhall Motors Limited's Global Connect and Matrix CX systems. In addition, we sometimes use Debt Recovery Collectors and Solicitors to help us with Credit Control and, as such, your data will be shared with them in order to chase payment. From time to time we may use third parties to carry out jobs on our behalf, such as servicing on remote islands. Therefore, certain necessary data such as your name, address and information on your machinery must be passed on.
Why is your data collected?	Your data is collected in order to process a sale, carry out a job, register for manufacturer warranty, manage your account and send you customer satisfaction surveys to ensure our level of customer service meets Manufacturer requirements.
How will your data be used?	Your data will be used for the processing of payments, carrying out jobs, issuing of statements and invoices, the registering of manufacturing warranty, the sending of customer satisfaction surveys, and for day to day transactions or enquiries with our Sales, Parts and Service staff.
Who will we share your data with?	Information on financial transactions will be shared as required by law with HMRC. Data collated to register a manufacturer warranty and sales records will be shared with the relevant manufacturer of the machine, such as AGCO, JCB or Honda. Likewise, information used to book a Vauxhall car service at Ross of Lanark, including your full name, car registration number, chassis number and contact details, will be shared with Vauxhall Motors Limited via SADE for the purpose of sending you a customer satisfaction survey. From time to time we commission third parties to carry out jobs on our behalf and as a result the necessary data required, such as the customer name, vital contact details and machine information is passed on. Occasionally we are required to share details of animal medicine sales with the Veterinary Medicine Director.
How long will your data be stored for?	In accordance with current HMRC guidance, all customer account data will be held for a minimum of 7 years.

Contractual Information:

What do we use your data for?	Contractual information is used only for entry into Hire Contracts and Finance Agreements.
How is your data collected?	Data is collected at the point of transaction when you enter into a contract with us.
Where is your data stored?	Data provided for Hire Contracts is stored against your customer account on our IBCOS Gold System and Autoview System. If you enter into a Finance Agreement with one of our providers, then your information will be stored on their systems also.
Why is your data collected?	As Secondary Credit brokers we act on behalf of several finance companies to collect the data require to ensure your eligibility to enter into a Finance Agreement. Similarly, we collect data to ensure eligibility for Machinery and Equipment Hire.
How will your data be used?	Your data will be used to finalise the Hire Contract or Finance agreement. Data collected to process a Hire Contract may also be used for any future contact regarding your contract or agreement.
Who will we share your data with?	If you enter into a Finance Agreement with one of our partners (AGCO Finance, JCB Finance and Rural Finance) then your information must be shared with them to ensure eligibility for and completion of the agreement.
How long will your data be stored for?	Data included in Hire Contracts will be stored for a maximum of four years from the date of the contract. Data used to set up a finance agreement is stored by the relevant Finance House or broker.

Marketing Information:

What do we use your data for?	We use your personal information to inform you about relevant products, news and offers. This is what we mean when we talk about 'marketing'. Part of our marketing strategy involves market research. We will only use information that has been given voluntarily when you participate in any of our research projects.
How is your data collected?	We can only use your personal information to send you marketing messages if we obtain your consent. Your consent is collected when you complete the 'Subscribe to our Newsletter' form on any of our websites or through completion of a signed paper form in one of our depots. At our Vauxhall Authorised Service Centre in Lanark, we process marketing consent on behalf of Vauxhall. This consent given via a 'Let's Stay in Touch' Vauxhall signed paper form and is for marketing communications from Vauxhall Motors Limited only. We may give you consent forms on behalf of other manufacturers. However, these forms are for manufacturer marketing communications only. We will only process the personal information you provide for market research purposes when the law allows us to.

	Most commonly, we will use your personal information when you have provided fully informed consent or where it is necessary for legitimate interests. We will only collect information that has been voluntarily given by participants.
Where is your data stored?	Evidence of your consent and your data is stored against your customer account in our IBCOS Gold System, Autoview System and company One Drive. If you have consented to receive email marketing from The Hamilton Ross Group, your data is also stored on The Rocket Science Group's Mailchimp system. Those who have consented to receive information from Ross of Lanark regarding Car Service will also have their data stored on Vauxhall's ADapt system, which we also use to build and send email newsletters. The information stored on Vauxhall ADapt is only for our own marketing purposes and will not be used by Vauxhall. If you have consented to receive marketing communications from Vauxhall Motors Limited by completing their 'Let's Stay in Touch' consent form at our Ross of Lanark Vauxhall Authorised Car Service Centre, then your details will also be stored against Vauxhall Motor Limited's RETAIN programme and will be shared with their partner Stericycle Expert Solutions (SES). For more information please see Vauxhall Motors Limited's Privacy Notice https://www.vauxhall.co.uk/tools/privacy-policy.html. If you have consented to receive marketing from one of our manufacturers via a form we presented to you, then this will be passed back to the manufacturer in question and stored against their own system. Data collected for market research purposes will be stored in our company One Drive. If you have completed one of our market research surveys on Survey Monkey, then your data will also be stored against their system.
Why is your data collected?	Marketing and market research are an important part of our business as it allows us to keep you up to date with our events, promotions, news and future developments and helps us improve our customer service.
How will your data be used?	Your data will be used to send you information on relevant news, offers, events and developments. The subject of this information and the method of communication will correspond with the preferences you selected when you gave your consent to receive marketing. Data given via a Vauxhall Motors Limited consent form will be passed to Vauxhall for their own marketing purposes. Likewise, data provided via any other manufacturer forms will only be used for manufacturer marketing. We will not use this data for our own marketing purposes unless you have also consented to receive information from The Hamilton Ross Group. Data collected for market research purposes will be used to better improve our services and business plans. Participants will be fully briefed of how their data will be used prior to taking part in any of our research projects.
Who will we share your data with?	If you consent to receive marketing from The Hamilton Ross Group then we will not share your data with any third parties for marketing purposes without your prior consent. Likewise, if you participate in any of our market research projects, then your data will not be shared with third

	parties for marketing purposes. However, we do use third parties (The Rocket Science Group's Mailchimp System, Vauxhall Motor Ltd's ADapt system and Survey Monkey) to process your information for the purposes of building and sending emails and surveys. If you consent to receive marketing from Vauxhall Motors Limited when visiting our Ross of Lanark Vauxhall Authorised Car Service Centre, then we will share this information with Vauxhall. Vauxhall is the Data Controller of this information. Forms completed on behalf of other manufacturers will be passed back to the manufacturer in question as they are the Data Controller.
How long will your data be stored for?	Data will be stored for 12 months, after which time you will be asked to update your preferences to ensure we have the correct information on file. You can opt out at any time by emailing gdpr@hamiltonrossgroup.co.uk If you have completed a consent form at Ross of Lanark to receive marketing information from Vauxhall then Vauxhall Motors Limited's Terms and Conditions will apply and you must contact them direct to opt-out. For forms completed for other manufacturers, please refer to the Privacy Policy of the manufacturer. Data collected for market research purposes will be stored for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for.
